

Issue # 51

The RCC Weekly

May 2, 2013

Professional Development

The Title III Professional Development Days and Learning Academy take place on May 21 and 22. Pre-registration is required to attend, and the deadline for that is May 10. There is an enrollment cap, so register early to ensure yourself a space. Click on this link to register: rccpddays.eventbrite.com

Wednesday has two full-morning sessions:

- Communicating in a Diverse Environment, for all College staff and faculty
- Quantitative Reasoning across the Curriculum, for faculty.

On Tuesday (all day) and Wednesday afternoon there will be multiple concurrent sessions. If you haven't gotten the full schedule via e-mail, contact sgiles@rcc.mass.edu.

Mark Your Calendar

May 4-9: Finals Week

May 9: PTK Induction

May 10: Deadline to register for Learning Academy / Title III Days

May 17: Commencement

May 21 & 22: Learning Academy / Title III Days

Assessment Meeting

Dr. Tala Khudairi, Dr. Javad Moulai, Ms. Jennie Thrash, and Dr. Brenda Mercomes attended Chancellor Richard Freeland's meeting on Assessment on May 1 in Marlborough. Both four-year college and community college faculty and administrators were in attendance.

Presidential Search

The final Presidential candidate met with faculty, staff, students and administrators on Thursday, May 2nd. Stay

The Board of Trustees will hold a special board meeting in Open Session to discuss the final four Presidential Candidates and possibly vote on finalist for permanent president on Tuesday, May 7, 2013 at 4:30pm (2-308)

Remember, candidate bios are posted on the RCC website.